

JUNIOR LEAGUE BIRMINGHAM

Frequently Asked Questions about Joining the Junior League of Birmingham

- 1. Do my Sponsors need to be Members of the JLB or can they be Members of any Junior League?
Sponsors will need to be Active or Sustainer Members of the Junior League of Birmingham specifically.
- 2. When you say that one of my three (3) Sponsors needs to be an “Active” or “Sustainer”, what does that mean?
An “Active” Member is one who is currently in good standing and volunteering their time and talents within the JLB.
A “Sustaining” Member is one who has given ten (10) years of Active service and is in good standing. Please note, a Member who is currently in their Provisional Year or who is on Restricted Status is not eligible to be a Sponsor.
- 3. I am new to Birmingham and I don’t know anyone that is a Member of the JLB. How do I find Sponsors?
The Admissions Team can help candidates in reaching out to potential Sponsors. Additionally, you can ask around at your workplace, place of worship, gym, alumni networking groups, etc. You can also check out Social Media. “Like” the JLB Facebook page, “Follow” us on Twitter, and check out our LinkedIn Profile.
- 4. What is the age criteria for Membership into the JLB?
In order to join the Provisional Class for 2020 – 2021, you must be at least 23 years of age by September 1, 2020.
- 5. I was an Active member of another League and have recently moved to Birmingham; Do I need to restart my Provisional year in order to become a Member of the JLB?
In most cases, if you have completed your Provisional Year at another Junior League, you can Transfer your Membership. In order to Transfer your Membership, you must contact your current League and ask them to Transfer your Membership to the JLB, via the AJLI (Association of Junior Leagues International) e-Transfer system. You can also reach out to Amber Ritchie, our Membership & Administrative Coordinator (aritchie@jlbonline.com); Hilary Harrison, our Membership VP (membershipvp@jlbonline.com); and Shanika Gibson, our Member Liaison (memberliaison@jlbonline.com) for assistance with the Transfer process.
